ADDENDUM

1. The Pupil's Registration (Amendment) Regulations 1988 now require the School to record the names and addresses of every person known to the Governing Body to be a parent of a registered pupil.
2. You are therefore asked to show the full names of both father and mother, provided that both reside at the family home; or in the absence of both, the same details for all Guardians.

(In the case of separation, divorce or remarriage, you are invited but not obliged to show the full names and addresses of the natural parents and also of a stepfather or stepmother.)

3. For details of the School's data protection policies, please visit the School website www.skimmers-school.co.uk, where you will be able to view the Data Protection Policy and Privacy Notice.
